Parent Relocation Council honors Local Partner™ for her community activism.

Barbara Delgleize, CRS, GRI, SRES, ABR, LTG, e-Pro, and Local Partner™ for the Parent Relocation Council (PRC), has recently been honored by the organization for her commitment to her community of Huntington Beach, California.

Predicated on their conviction that outstanding community service should be acknowledged, the “Profiles in Community Excellence Program”, honors Local Partners™ who enhance communities and the real estate industry by giving of their time and expertise. Delgleize is delighted to be the Local Partner™ selected to be profiled and honored by the Parent Relocation Council by this program.

The Parent Relocation Council provides programs and resources for families moving across town, or relocating across the nation. Agents certified as a Local Partner™ have a proven track record of sales success, as well as demonstrate a dedication and commitment to be the ultimate local resource in their communities. Relocating families know they can trust and rely on their Local Partner™ to help them settle seamlessly into their new community.

“Barbara Delgleize is an awesome agent, a stalwart community activist and a staunch supporter of real estate organizations dedicated to professionalism. She is a most deserving and qualified recipient of this recognition” announced Denny Tu, President of Parent Relocation Council Inc.

The depth of Delgleize’s activism is far reaching. From being a part of organizations like ‘Rebuilding Orange County Together’ a non-profit organization dedicated to helping the elderly and disable renovate their homes, to serving as a volunteer docent giving tours of the Bolsa Chica Wetlands, Delgleize’s energy and passion never wavers.

As 2005 President of the Orange County Association of Realtors® and a past president of the Coastal and West Orange County Chapter of the Women’s Council of REALTORS®, she has tirelessly given of her time and leadership talents to organizations championing the cause of professionalism in the Real Estate industry. Of particular note is the “OCAR Cares” program that she was instrumental in creating while serving as the association president. This program creates a relief fund accessible to both Realtor® and Affiliate association members in need. Delgleize was also responsible for creating a new community awareness initiative called the REALTOR® Community Leadership Program (RCLP) to recognize REALTORS® who make an extraordinary commitment to improving the quality of life in their communities through volunteer work.

“Barbara is a superb Local Partner™ for PRC” said Tu, “Not only because of her dedication to professionalism, but also because of her commitment to local governmental issues that concern the Huntington Beach area. As a well respected community leader, she is the ‘go-to’ person that families depend on for answers and resources. No one knows the territory better than Barbara!”

As an active member of the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce she serves on the ‘Huntington Beach Robert Meyer Leadership Academy’ focused on helping people in the area with healthcare, emergency services, education and other vital issues.

She believes whole heartedly in giving back to the community that has nurtured and supported her and her family for over 30 years. From seniors to students, Delgleize’s energy and caring encompasses everyone.

Delgleize is a broker associate with Keller Williams Realty with over 30+ years of experience in real estate sales and property management services, as well as an incredible depth of knowledge about the exclusive territory of Huntington Beach that she owns as an authorized Local Partner™ for the Parent Relocation Council.
